SENAKA DE SILVA

Senaka De Silva who is currently serves the committee as the Ex-President, has served our community School as the President for six consecutive years commencing from July 2012 until June 2018. Under his leadership numerous novel programs were introduced to the school including preparation of annual plan for the school, establishing a children aesthetic centre to conduct diverse workshops for children, annual “soorya mangalyaya” program for Sinhala Avurudu Celebration, Swarna Rashmi Musical Program (2014), “Muthu Keta Vessa” bi-annual children concert (2013, 2015 and 2017), Muthu Keta Newsletter and “Lassana Lanka Program “(2016). Senaka also led number of fund-raising programs for the school during his presidency with the support of the committee, teachers and parents including mega community fairs (Wasantha Mela, Gimhana Mela), screening Sri Lankan films and sausage sizzles.

Before migrating to Sri Lanka in 2007, Senaka worked as a school teacher in Economics and Logic in number of public and private schools and thus even now he has the passion to contribute towards educational programs. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Kelaniya, Sri Lanka. In his leisure time he involves in doing art and craft work as well as writing lyrics for new songs. He has written number of songs for Perth Sinhala School including the School song and theme songs of Muthu Keta Vessa and Lassana Lanka concerts.
