

SUMEDHA SIRISENA

---

Sumedha Sirisena is a professional engineer who has obtained his bachelor's Engineering Degree from University of Moratuwa Sri Lanka. He also studied about fashion designing in De Montfort University Leicester, Bedford. UK and spent some time in developing his skills in Northern Ireland before migrating to Australia. Sumedha comes with more than 12 years' experience in his specialised field.

Sumedha works as a production manager for a school uniform manufacturing company in WA. He visits schools for designing and for various development projects involving with children. Sumedha has a passion for teaching children and contributes effectively for their development in education.

Sumedha joined Perth Sinhala School in 2017 as a relief teacher and teaches language for any age group as and when required.

Sumedha loves to spend his weekends with his family.

